2. GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

2.1 Approval of Out of State Travel for Band Students to Attend the Western International Band Clinic in Seattle Washington November 19-22, 2010

BACKGROUND INFORMATION: Board approval is required when students travel out of the state on school activities.

CURRENT CONSIDERATIONS: Three students of the Burroughs High School Band auditioned and qualified to attend the Western International Band Clinic in Seattle Washington November 19-22, 2010. Students will participate with other students from throughout the United States who have qualified to be a part of this nationwide event. They will spend Friday, Saturday and Sunday practicing with renowned composers and conductors in order to present two concerts on Monday. Each parent will be taking their children to this event.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS: The cost of registration is $185 per student which will be paid out of the Burroughs High School Band Club funds. All travel expenses, lodging, and food will be paid by the parents. There is no cost to the general fund.

SUPERINTENDENT'S RECOMMENDATION: It is recommended that the board approve travel for three Burroughs High School students to attend the Western International Band Clinic in Seattle Washington November 19-22, 2010.
